

LANDLORD PROTECT

This policy wording covers residential property let to tenants under a written tenancy agreement. Cover is provided in Pakistani Rupees (PKR) and is subject to the schedule, the terms below, and any endorsement attached.

SECTION 1 — DEFINITIONS

1.1 Let property means the residential building described in the schedule and occupied under a written tenancy agreement at the date of loss.

1.2 Tenant means the person named in that tenancy agreement.

1.3 Sudden and accidental carries the same meaning as in the HomeSecure range of wordings: unforeseen, unintended, and occurring at an identifiable point in time.

SECTION 2 — COVERAGE

COVERAGE A — BUILDINGS

The insurer will indemnify the landlord for direct physical loss or damage to the let property up to the sum insured, arising from an insured peril.

COVERAGE C — LOSS OF RENT

Where the let property is rendered uninhabitable by an insured peril, the insurer will indemnify the landlord for rent genuinely lost, for the period reasonably required to reinstate the property, up to a maximum of twelve months and not exceeding PKR 600,000.

SECTION 3 — WATER DAMAGE

3.1 Sudden and accidental escape of water from the fixed plumbing system of the let property is covered. A deductible of PKR 40,000 applies to each and every claim, which is higher than the equivalent deductible under the HomeSecure range.

SECTION 4 — EXCLUSIONS

4.1 Gradual leakage, seepage and damage arising from lack of maintenance are excluded, on the same basis as under the HomeSecure wordings.

4.2 Malicious damage caused by the tenant or by any person lawfully in the let property with the tenant's permission is excluded unless the Malicious Damage by Tenant endorsement is shown as operative in the schedule.

4.3 Loss of rent is excluded where the property was vacant at the date of loss and no tenancy agreement was in force.

4.4 Wear and tear and gradual deterioration are excluded.

SECTION 5 — CLAIMS CONDITIONS

5.1 The landlord must hold a written tenancy agreement and produce it on request as a condition precedent to liability under Coverage C.

5.2 Notification must be given within thirty days of the date of loss.
